

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

11-23-1959

From: Annie Laws

Annie Laws

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Laws, A. (1959). From: Annie Laws. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/350>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Hickory Flat, Miss
Nov 23-1959

Mr John Allen Chalk
Dayton, Ohio.

Dear John Allen:

Good morning to you!. We were so glad to have your letter some days ago, and are delighted that you are going to get closer HOME. Hope now, you might get this far sometime.

Annie Louise thinks she must have told you that our preacher, Jackie Fox is from Cookeville . His home is Crossville Tenn. He is a fine boy, and a splendid preacher for a beginner. We are doing all right I suppose we can say, not growing a great deal, but holding our own! Peace and harmony still prevails. That is much to be thankful for.

Now a question: How about holding a meeting for us next summer (1960) ?. Everybody put their heads together, and has come up with the suggestion that we write you. All seemed to be so anxious to have you back with us again. The time most suitable to ~~you~~^{you} would be August-- usual time, second or third Sundays. We possibly could work that out though.

Sue's "finishing" will sound good to you both. ^{I am} looking forward to meeting Sue sometime, mabe next summer!. Hope you are going to like your new home. Truly hope we can work out somet hig about the meeting. sure sure

Christian love to both.

Annie -
Annie Laws

Box 62
Hickory
Flat, Miss